Vision Acquires Design Marketing Group

May 2009 – Cedar Knolls, NJ – Vision Creative Group is pleased to announce the acquisition of Design Marketing Group, a multimedia design agency located in Edgewater, New Jersey. This exciting event brings together two strategic, well positioned and financially strong agencies with years of experience and expertise in the consumer packaged goods arena.

Design Marketing Group will move to our Cedar Knolls offices and will begin to integrate with our agency during the month of May. All clients will continue to benefit from the personal attention, care and prompt service that have been a hallmark for each agency over the years. And now, with the increased account services team and five creative teams (including creative directors, print and web designers, programmers, copywriters and production managers) clients will enjoy the benefits of an even greater range of talent. "In addition to our continued focus on excellent creative and account service; we will keep a watchful eye on providing competitive pricing to help insure that our clients receive the best possible value, especially during these tough financial times." commented Andy Bittman, President VCG.

If you have any questions regarding this acquisition or if you have any immediate needs, please contact Andy Bittman, President of VCG at 973-984-3454.
